

Thinking about Colours, 1993, Jessica Jenkins, 0099795809, 9780099795803,
Random House, 1993

Five children explore the world of colour through illustrated pages, every other one illustrating a different colour. In between, a full page illustration uses that colour to bold effect - a herd of black and white zebras gallop or a mass of yellow daffodils shine out. Jessica Jenkins shows the way colours are used as symbols or to reflect moods, as well as discussing expressions like in the pink of having green fingers.
